Kate,

Well hon, another great year is starting. 1st place at Bloomsburg is only the beginning! This year is gonna be one of the best years we've ever had! Percussion is gonna rock like never before! I want to thank you for everything. You are one of the best friends a chick could ever have. I consider myself very lucky. Always remember our fun times in Band and at camp. Never forget me for I can't forget you. Friends Forever and Ever! '90 Love,

TURTLE POWER!

– KATH

Kate,

Well, I figured I'd sign here right below Kath just in case you planned on alphabetizing your sign-ins. Can you believe it, 1st place? Amazing, huh? Yeah, I'm still in shock. This is certainly a start for us. Let's keep doing it!! Always remember the great stuff (like beating up Doug), etc. Good luck with everything, Kate, you're a great friend.

Yours,

RMA '90

Kate,

Well, well, well! Why am I signing someone's yearbook who won't even let me hold her "babies" (in the package even) What a mean person you are! Just kidding pal. Remember all those competitions, (esp. Bloom) calvalcades, and those nights we sat in either Luigi's or Tickety Split remarking about hair in our ice creams or the dweebs in the mirror that we were watching. Have fun and stay cool! Best of luck always, you deserve it "bud"

Love always, Nikki xo

Kate,

Hey chick! How are ya? Well, what to start with?!..... How 'bout our first place at Bloomsburg! Our very first competition and we get 1st place!! Our next achievement is to beat Bloom. at Berwick. Remember Kathy's parties and the fun we had. Goodluck and take care!

Love Always,
Renelle

Kate,

Thanks for being such a great friend and co-marching band member. Remember all of the fun times we've had in band, the RCV Cantata, marching band. You're a beautiful girl, and I love you.

Anne '89

P.S. Say "hi" to Jake for me. I'll try to keep Bill of his beanbag next time.

Kate,

Ho-what's up?! Our Freshman year was certainly a year to remember, but it wouldn't have been the same as I would have liked it to have been. Someone has thrown it with. Science, Mr. Brenish's class as fun as Earth 3. Space, and remember: Library notebooks to remember: Library notebooks away!! Things to remember: Library notebooks away!! Study hall, AS II notebooks in everything, especially Best of luck in everything, especially Geometry! Thru your study hall, AS II notebooks in everything, especially Geometry! Best of luck in everything, especially Geometry!

SCA
Tiger Marching Pride

(always)

Luv always,
Maria '91

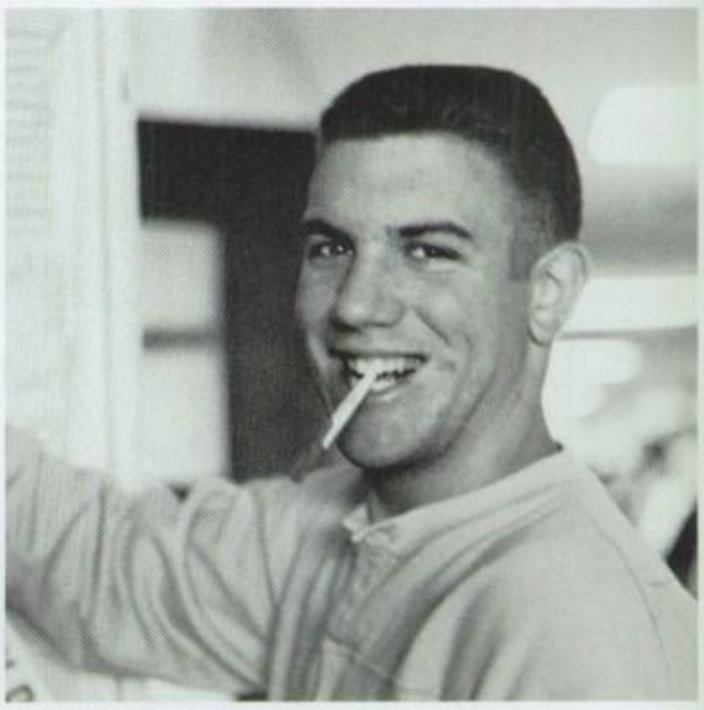
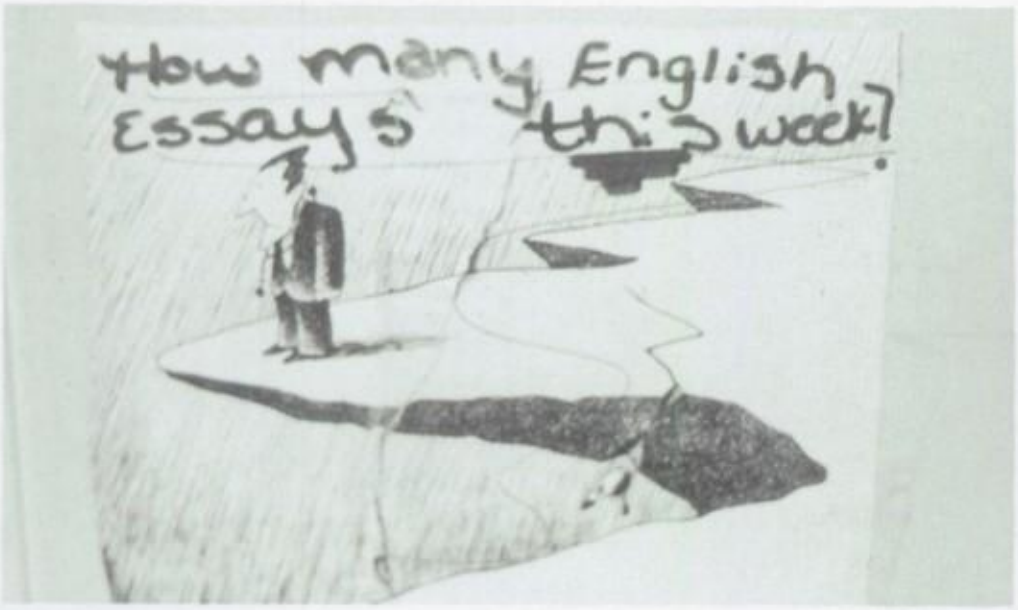
Impressive, but can he pirouette?



No snacking between meals.

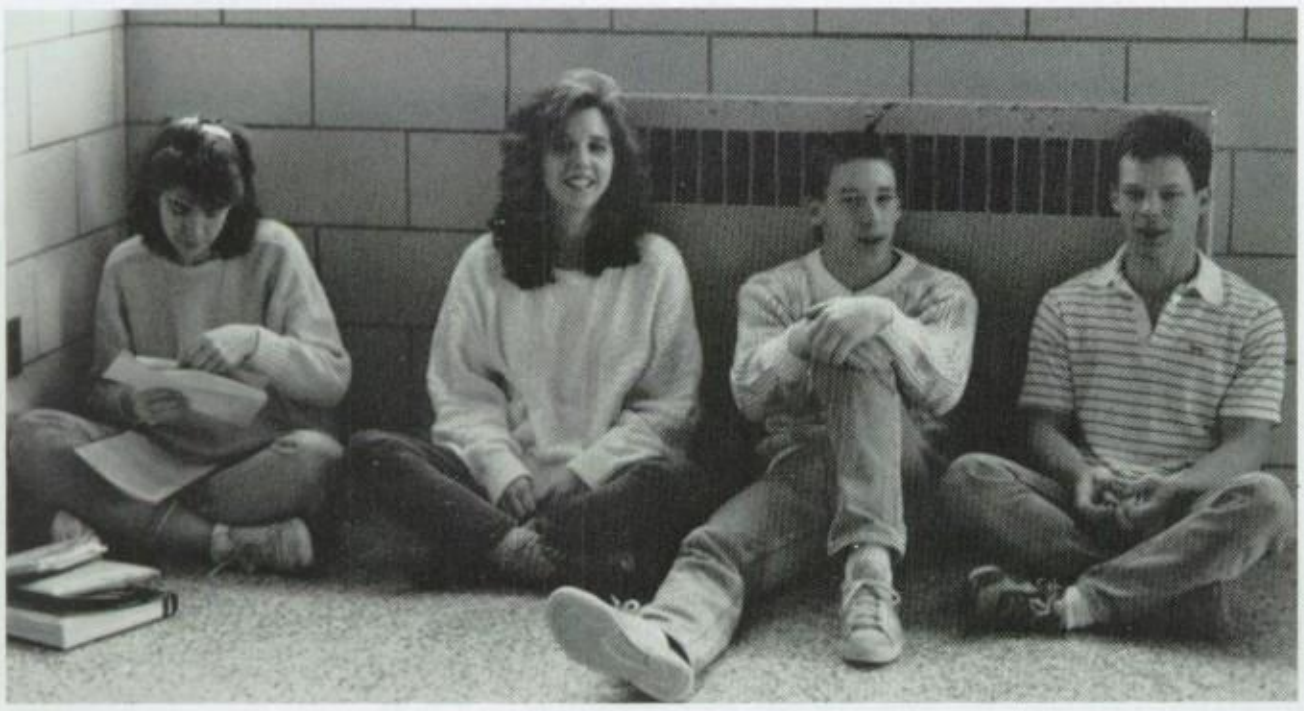


Beauty and the Geek.

This is no laughing matter.

Wait, my outline was just here!

Do you have a problem?



The new lounge

We want you, the few, the proud, to take art!

Welcome to our lab-or-a-tory.

Look out Barnabus!

Really, you'll be all right.

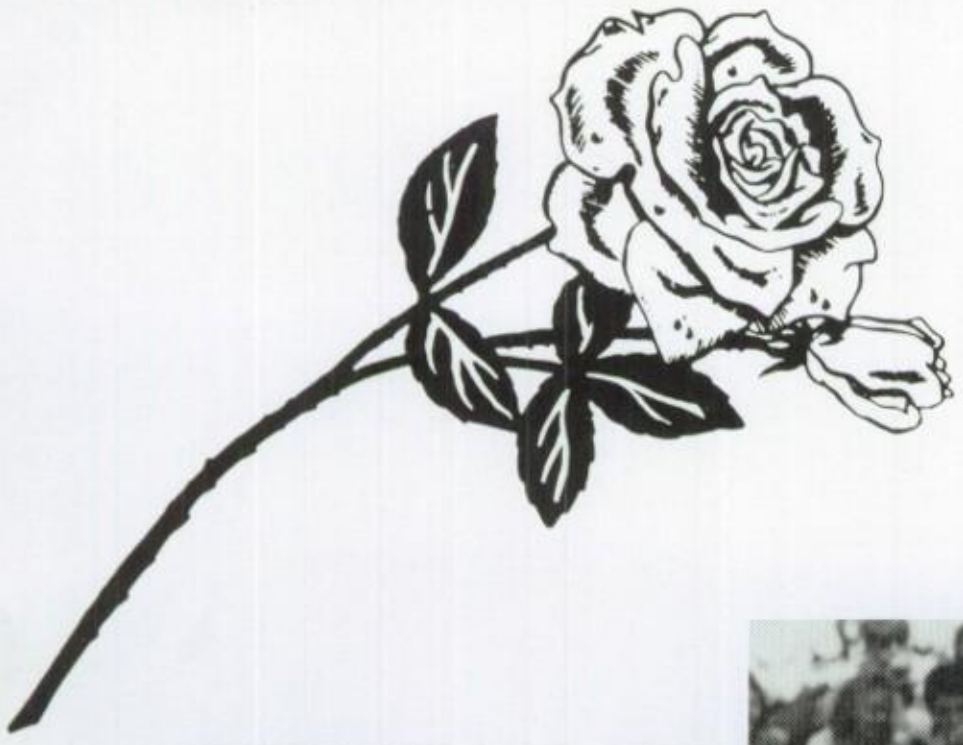
Remember RIF Day in elementary school? Recall the special book programs we sat through? Afterwards, we went to the large group area (in single file, of course) where we found a variety of books laid out for us to look through. Then we each chose one to keep. Now that we're in high school, this idea continues in the form of our annual book fair. Here, students may purchase books, bookmarkers, and other literary paraphenalia in the library. Everyone, from the occasional reader to the dedicated bookworm, can find something of interest on the shelves. No matter what the age, reading is still fundamental.

The Book Fair



Congratulations to Tami Wolfe who was crowned Southern Columbia's 1987-88 Homecoming Queen. Pictured beside her are her escorts, David Toth and William Rice. Homecoming- a week of strange clothing and customs (and a lot of fun!), culminated in a successful football game followed by a beautiful dance held for all the representatives and court.

Angelee Harvey, Mike Johnston, and Mike Matukaitus.

Janet Sharrow, Eric Feese, and Jerry Marks.

Laurel Stewart, John Dyer, and Dave Trathen.

And here she is, the lovely Deb Johnson, and yes, she did have escorts. Unfortunately, they are very camera shy, so we have no physical evidence of their existence. These mystery men were Brian Yeick and Lew Weikel. Sorry Deb.

Bell Ringing

In September of 1987, the Constitution of the United States celebrated its 200th Anniversary. Would the students of Southern Columbia Area High school let such a momentous occasion pass by unnoticed?

NO WAY!

"O.K. Troops, step lively now-just like Mr. Vastine!"

The first field trip of the 87-88 school year was the Bell Ringing Ceremony to celebrate the 200th birthday of the Constitution. The ringing of the bell sympolized the resounding liberty of our heritage throughout the ages to come.

Now what will we do for the tricentennial?

Once again it was time for the home economic classes to bake Christmas cookies as a token of appreciation for our teachers. Craving creative cookies, the truly trusting souls tasted the tempting tidbits. Once the overflowing tables were attacked by hungry teachers, the only object untouched was the centerpiece. Merry Christmas everyone and remember next time to save some for us.

Cookie Day

Washington D.C. Trip

Last year, in the steaming heat of early May, Mr. Jones's American History classes set out for Washington D.C. At the Capitol Building, Senator Paul Kanjorski personally greeted us and posed for pictures by the steps. After parting company with the senator, we toured the Capitol Building. Those of us who received the abbreviated tour (meaning our guides abandoned us before the Senate Building) strolled over to the Library of Congress. To this day, certain anonymous noseprints probably remain on the window overlooking the main reading room.

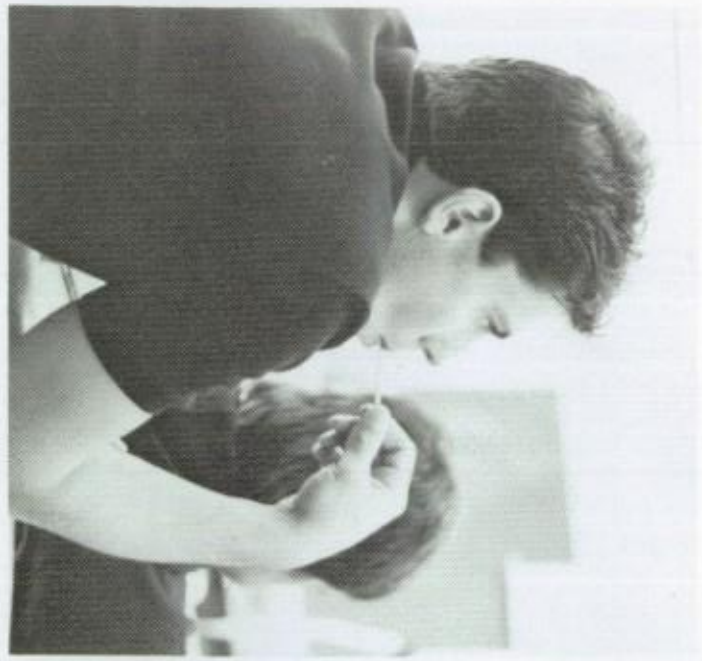
The trip was definitely made memorable by more than just the sites of the District of Columbia. The curse of the buses seemed to haunt us the entire day. More than once, we found ourselves squashed three or four to a seat due to the continual breakdowns. As if this situation wasn't bad enough, the near 100 degree temperature made our predicament nearly unbearable, especially for those of us who didn't ride in air-conditioned limousines.

All in all, this field trip was a venture to be remembered. The things we saw, did, and suffered are not easily forgotten. Even though we were alloted a very short amount of time to take in the sites, some of us found a spare moment to just hang out in the shade with good friends.

On April 10th, 1987, twenty-five members of S.C.A. shop courses traveled to the Edison Assembly Plant in Edison, N.J. There they watched a Ford Escort being manufactured. They continued to the Philadelphia Naval Shipyard. They were led on board a huge aircraft carrier in dock for modernization by a Lt. Commander of the Navy. While touring the rest of the shipyard, they also saw a destroyer being brought into dry dock and witnessed the vast amount of welding necessary in these occupations. All of the students were greatly impressed by the experiences shared on this successful field trip.

Field Trip To Shipyard

LOLLIPOP DAY



It was all too sore a sight to see student council selling suckers on sticks during the second day of Homecoming season. No self-respecting student was seen without a stick stuck in their silhouettes. Slurp. Slurp.

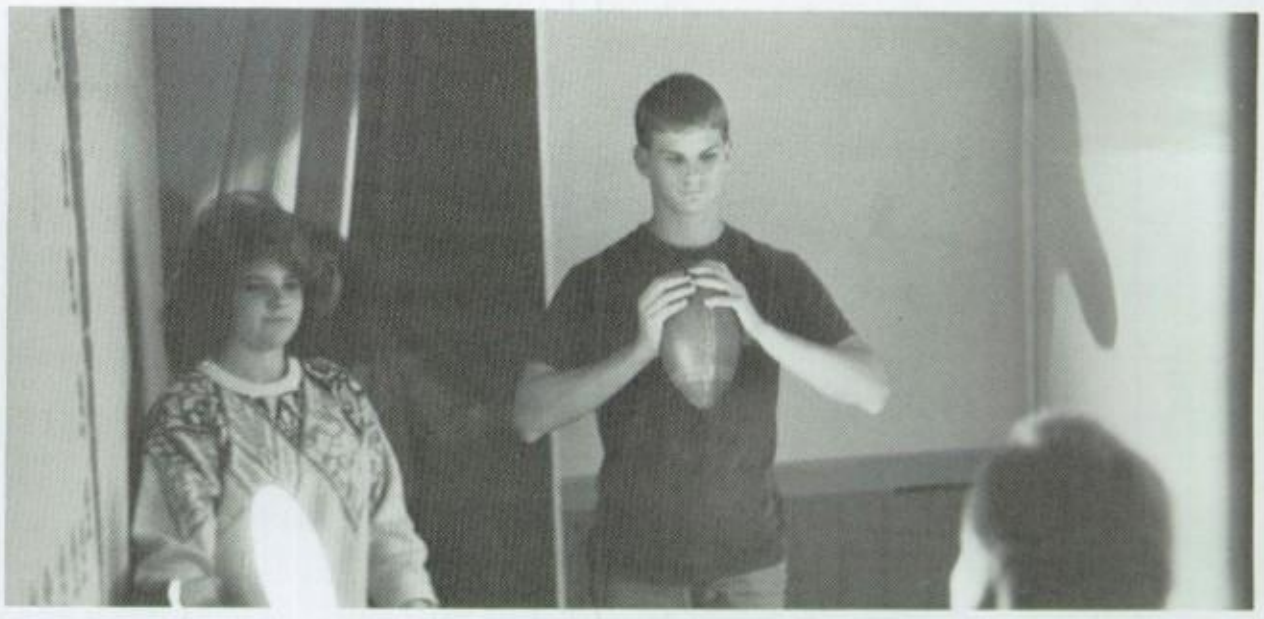
ORGANIZATIONS

When we're not in the spotlight, when we're not on the stage,
We're preparing to fill life's unwritten page.
When we're up there, just watch us shine,
You share a piece of your life, I'll give you one of mine.
Calm and mellow
Scream and shout
Us-that's what Drama is all about.

Getting back to our roots by acting out favorite children's stories.

The Twelve Days of Christmas: What does one do with all those gifts from her true love?



A Christmas Carol with Apologies to Dickens: The Three Ghostly Assignments made even Mrs. Davis cringe in fright.

Did you ever think about . . . (A work in progress): Take a trip into what lies beyond the normal school day.

A Yearbook Member is:
one who is willing to eat out every meeting
be it greasy pizza or fried chicken-n-hoagies . . .
one who is willing to stay until eight even while assignments pile up.
one who is willing to redo pages, redraw layouts, retype copy.
one with the patience of a saint
one who is willing to search for pictures, search for copy paper, search for . . .
one who can handle responsibility
one who places value in perfection one who knows when to call it quits.

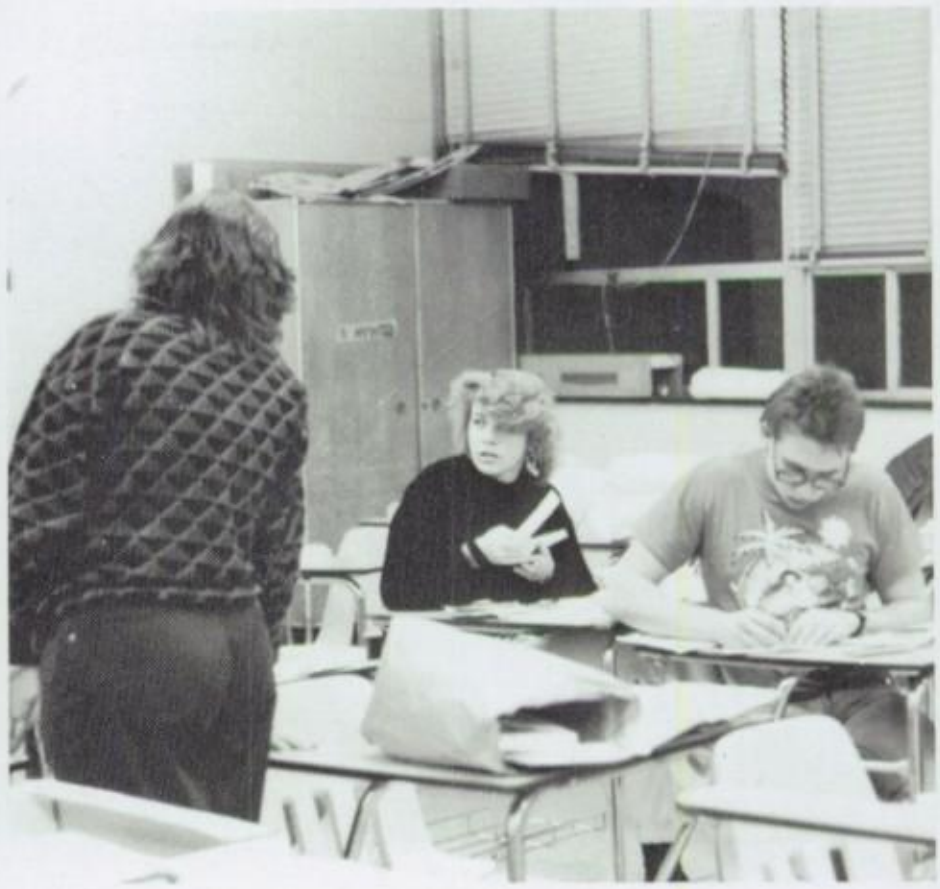
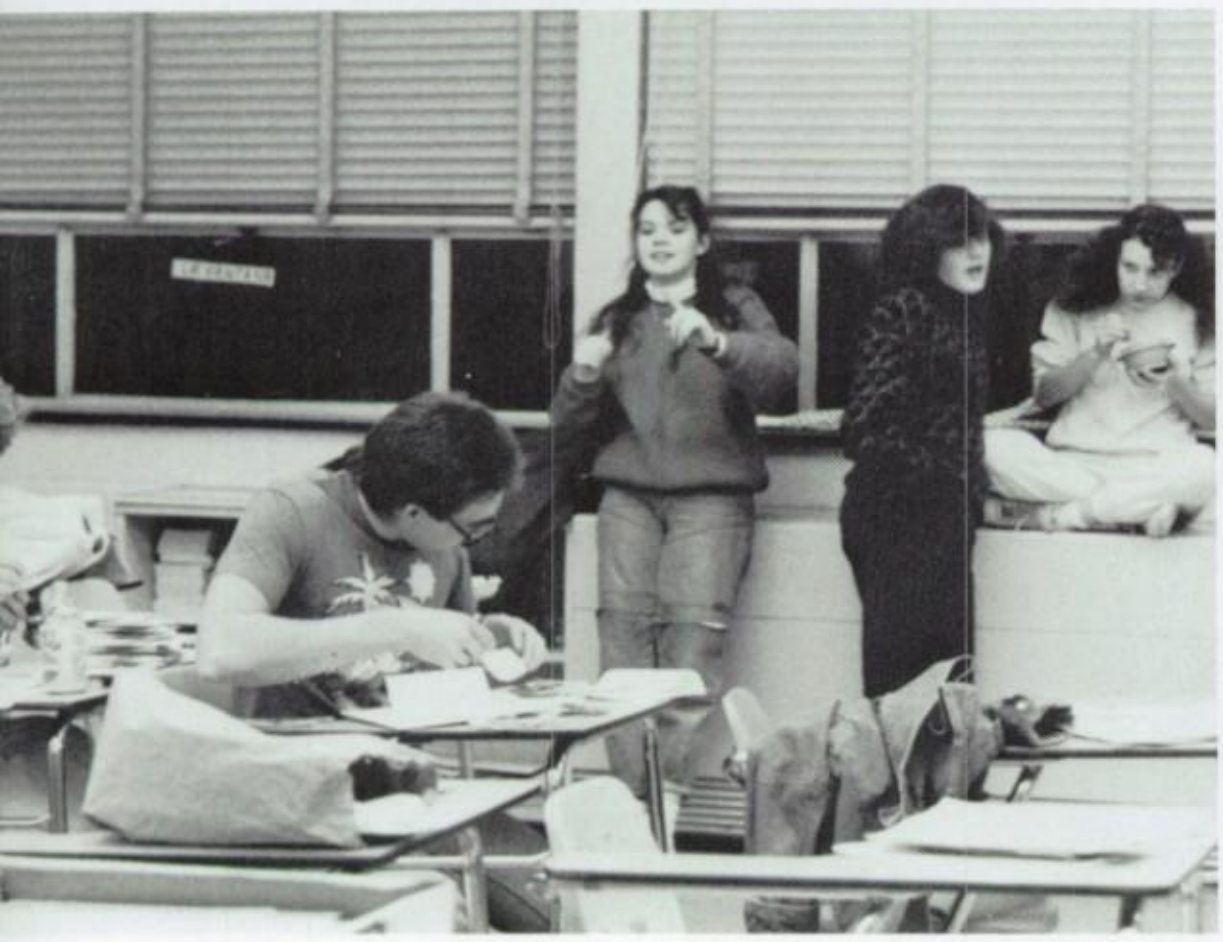
Impressions

As the year wore on, the staff thinned greatly. Tempers were shortened as well as deadlines. These were the times that try men's souls.

The '88 yearbook is a reflection of different views of life at our high school. The pictures enfolded here represent each one of us at our best. That may not be the way we ourselves view them. There are pictures of the teams, the clubs, and the individuals. Everyone has a special place-be it only a name beside a badly taken school picture. We all want to be remembered in our own special way. Precious memories are engraved inside these pages, and may they always be nearby to open. A deep thanks is owed to all the dedicated members of the yearbook staff.





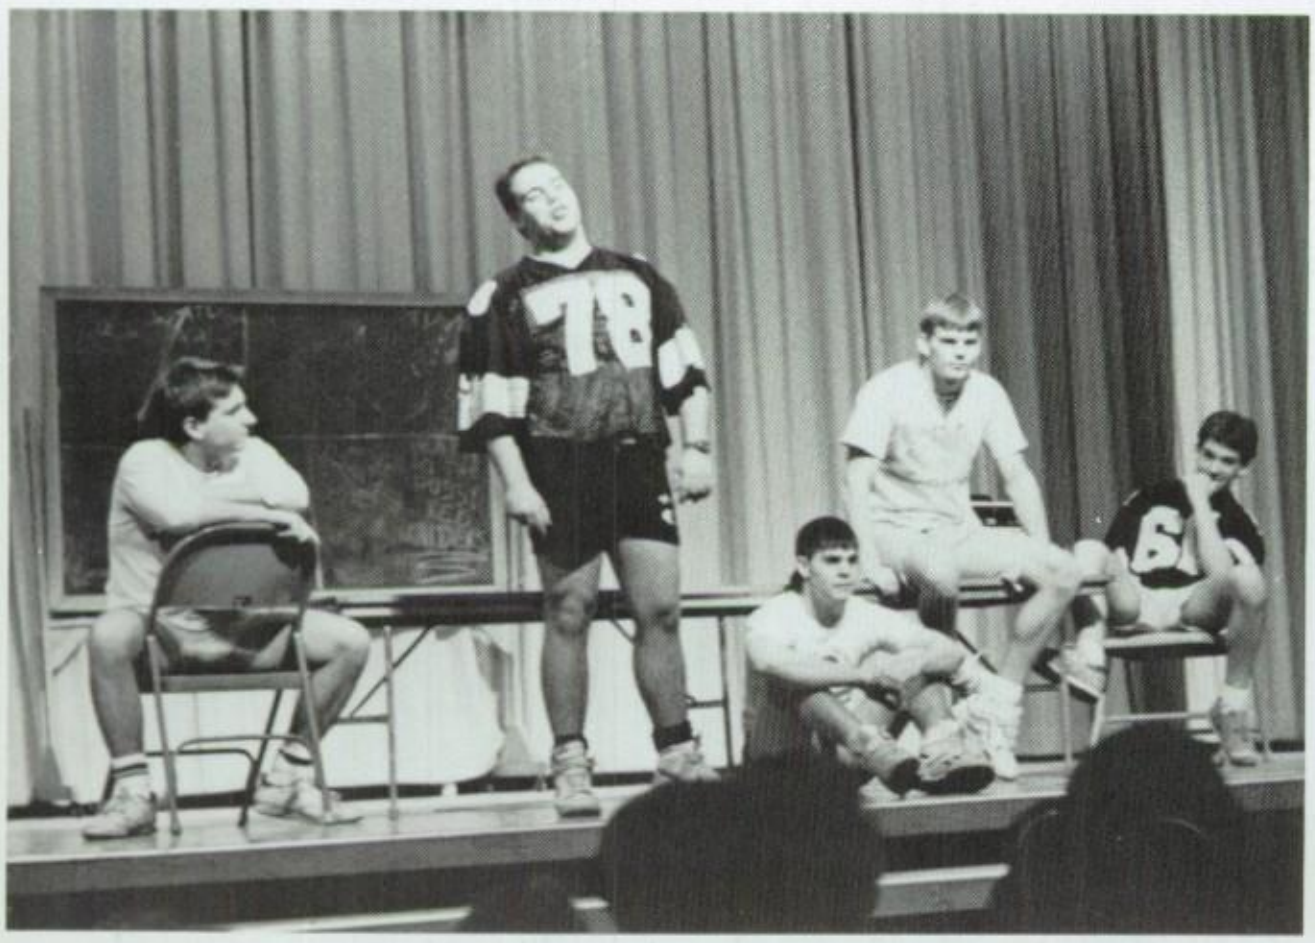
Can I take anybody's order?!

I hate small talk!

You can lean on me, pal.

. . . this hopeful feeling that just won't die!

Us guys. Together. Male bonding. UUH!!



The Bandage.

DONE TOO SOON

And each one of them,
Has one thing we share.
They have sweated beneath the same sun.
Looked up in wonder at the same moon.
And wept when it was all done,

As Seniors we view this year with happiness and sorrow
And our heads fill with dreams,
Of a better tomorrow.
We know we'll be leaving soon,
So we spend these last days making memories with our closest friends
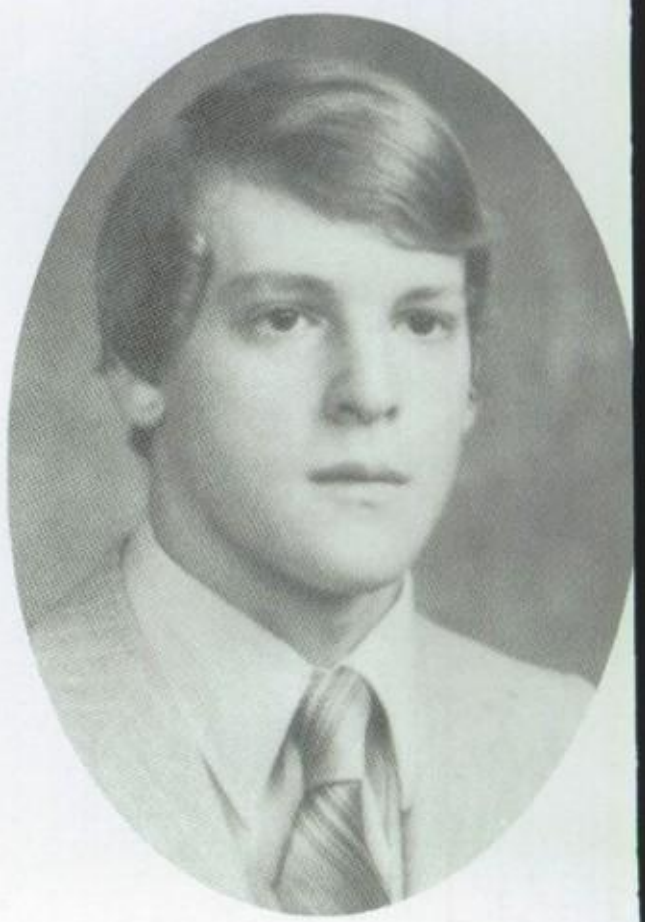
Who in a year or two, will simple be "old classmates."
And as graduation passes
It will all become memories.
Our fear of Mrs. Davis will be gone,
The click of Mrs. "Z's" typewriters won't be heard anymore,
And oh would old Mr. Henry be thrilled
To hear us recite . . .
"Roots, stems, and leaves"
The vegetative organs, of course.
Yet it will always be with us,
In the back of our minds,
For us Southern will never die.
And if we should come back to visit,
Although filled with new students,
The halls will hold familiar voices and faces.
So as we come to the end
Of our most memorable years,
To all of our frinds, classmates, teachers
And even to the walls of Southern itself
We say good-bye.

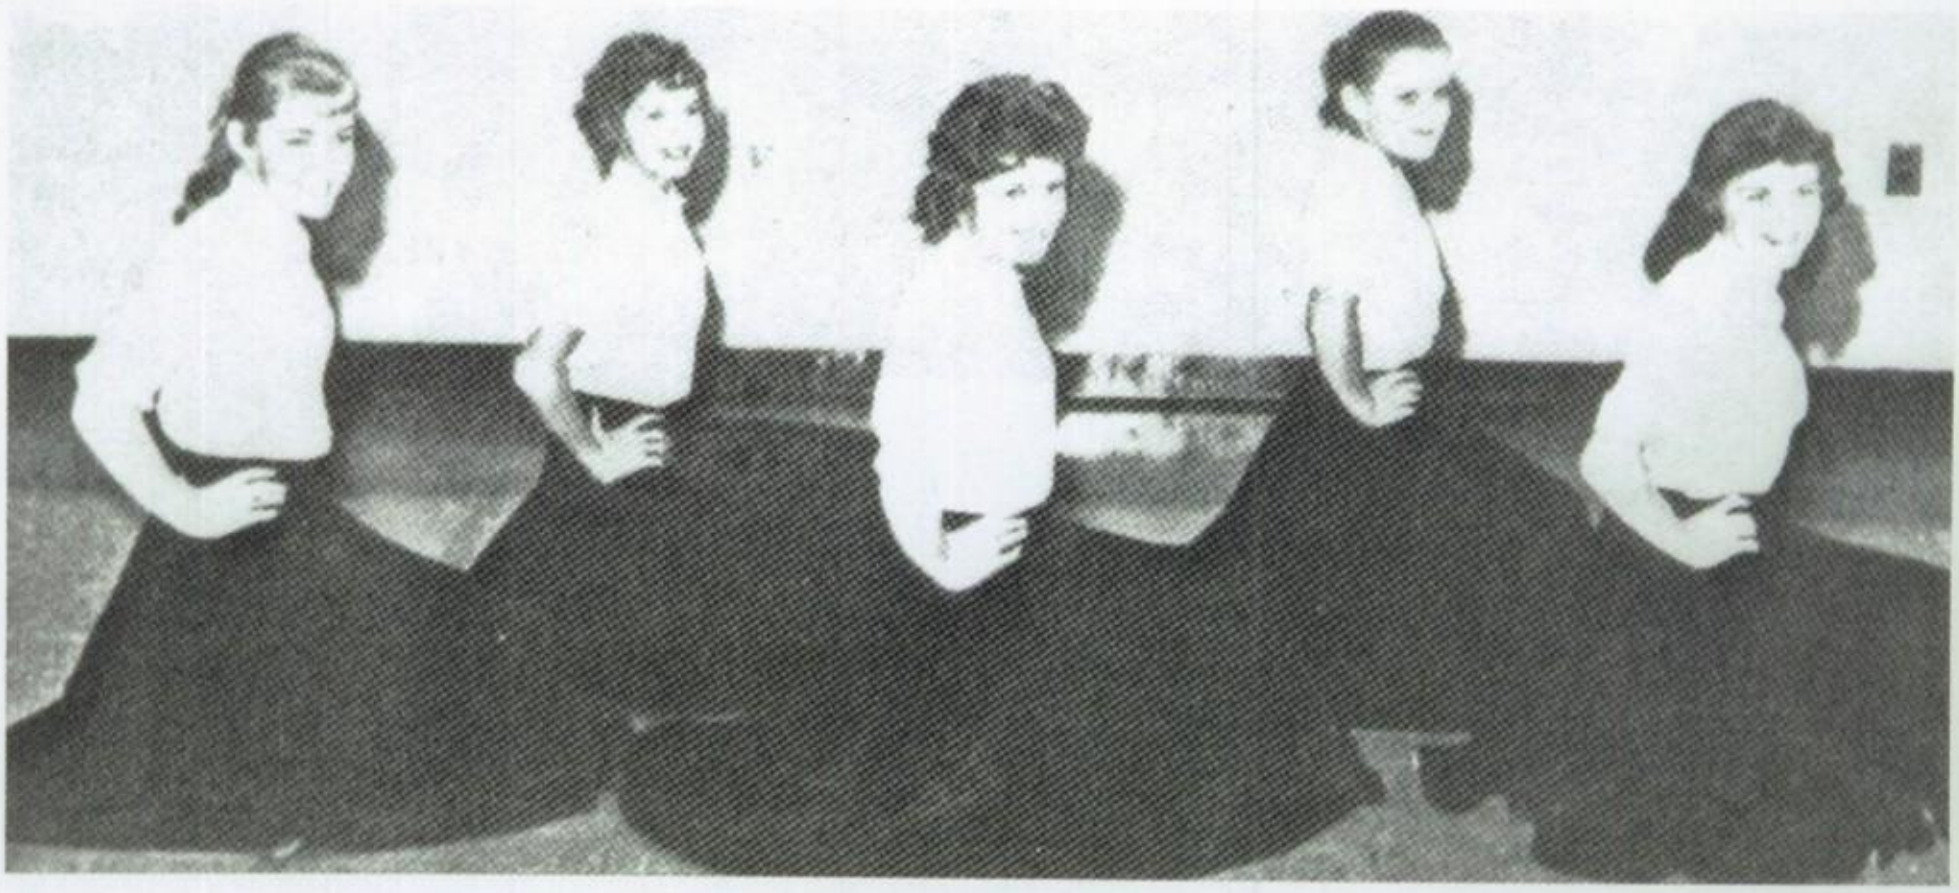
Natalie Girardi

Memories

"That was then; this is now." Way back in the Dark Ages - yes - back when Mr. Sanders had hair - there was (are you ready for this?) NO YEARBOOK! Then, in 1959, a momentous event occurred. The SCA Yearbook was born!

Now, in 1987 - 88, we are celebrating our Silver Anniversary. Well times change, and styles change (if you don't believe me, take a look at Mr. Woolcock's tie) but the more things change, the more they stay the same. And as we turn back through the pages of time, we'll remember the old times and the people who lived in them. Our parents, our teachers, our past, their past; we'll live again in this MEMORIES Section. So turn these pages, and find the answers to those immortal questions: "Did Mr. Sanders ever have hair?" "Who taught Senior English before Mrs. Davis?" "How old are these uniforms?"





Remember When . . .

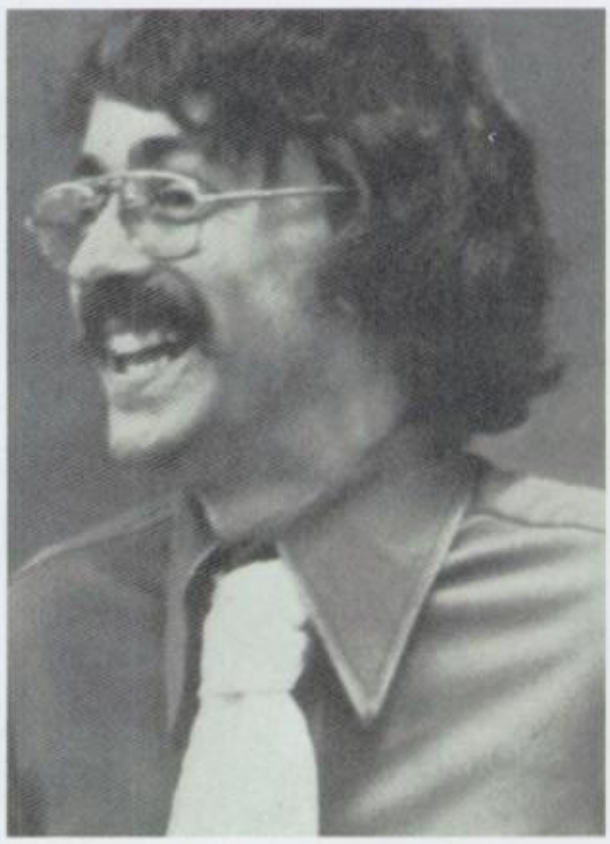
Mr. Henry- Was he ever this innocent?

Mr. Woolcock - Who is this unmasked man?

Mr. Doyle - This is Jim Doyle from WHLM.

Mr. Sanders - Bald is beautiful.

Mrs. Dalious - Need we say more?

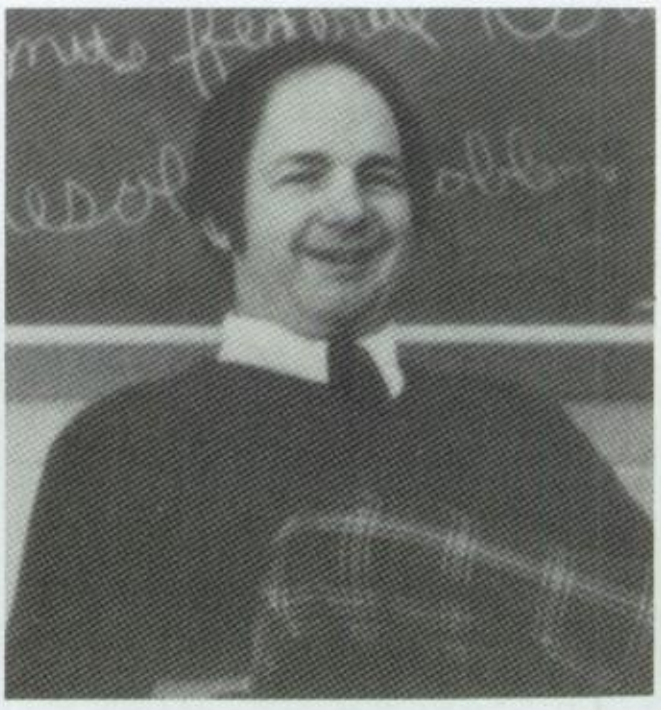


"Boy, do we look good?"

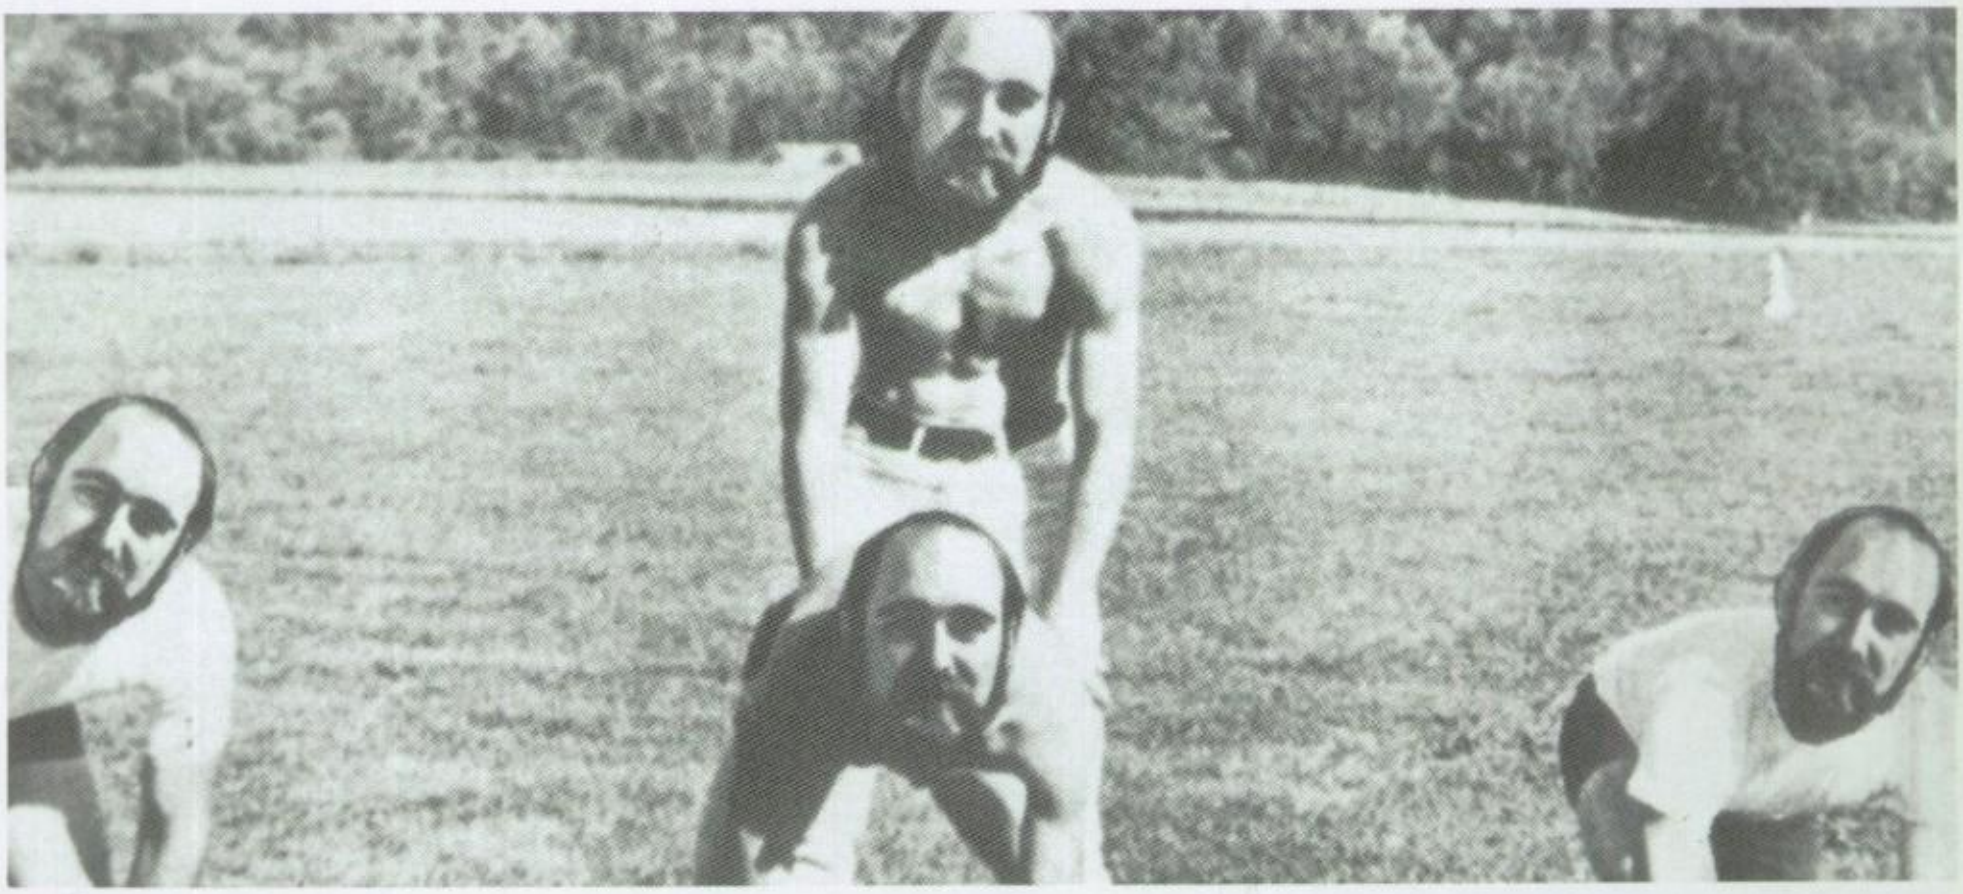
"Just you and me, Dude!"

Life used to be simple. I would eat, watch TV., and sleep. Now I'm teaching, and these kids are driving me crazy.

"What faces?"



I expect more from you.



All American athlete!

Darn hangnail!

Does your mommy dress you?

Kate,

What a fantastic year! I am soo glad that you are my friend. Remember all those times in lunch when I yelled in your ear. For that i'm terribly sorry (yeah, right!) I hope you have a great time in band this year, even though i won't be there. You are a very, very good friend that i couldn't even possibly think of forgeting. Remember all the good times and the parties we went to, i'd say forget the bad, but see, there were none! Wonderful! Gook ⇐ what the hell is that?!!! What i mean is Good luck and success w/ whatever you do, you deserve it!

Gook - what was i thinking??? !!!

Kate,

So I finally started to write this. Aren't we having fun together in chorus. Marching band this year is going to be great, a first place in the first competition. Now I guess that I better right the usual stuff that people always write in yearbooks. You've been a great friend and I hope you do very well in the future. You deserve all the best in life.

Love,
Misty

Kate,

Bonjour! How are ya? Are U ready for Berwick's cavalcade? It's gonna be great!! I don't think anything is going to beat Bloomsburg (for a while anyway!) You're such a great pal, I don't know what I'd ever do without you. or our wonderful phone calls. Don't ever forget the great times we had in band (or all the wonderful people we meet)

Love,
Deb "91"

Kate,
How the heck are ya. I can't wait x:11 school's over man!
chck

Kate-

Howdy Hon! How has life been treating you? Pretty good? I hope so cuz you deserve the best! Thanks for always listening to my problems, as stupid as some of them may be. We've had a lot of great times, especially in band. I'll never forget them! Remember when me, you, Derek, Doug, Tony and Wendy all went to Berwick to see Friday 13th? + we went to Lickety Split Afterwards? That seems to be a major hangout, huh? Anyway- I wish you love + luck always! love ya,

Don't forget this happenin History class!

Becky '90

Kate,

How about this 1st to 4th place deal? Oh well, it made 1st place sweet. I'll always keep you in my mind, bud. I'm glad I got to know you and your group. You're all really cool and fun people. Always remember the fun times at camp, competitions, and all the times together. Keep up the good work in band!

your bud,

Vanessa '90

Kate,
Well, I guess
I won't draw abou
this year. Sorry abou
the hair (but I like it that way!) You've been a great friend and we've gone through a lot together. (Especially the last year.) We had a lot of fun - Mustard Dance)
I hope it gets gonna be GREAT!
Well I gotta race back to work band. We
This band started out (couldn't resist one drawing)

Remember all the great times we've had in band, and more to come next year. Proud to have you in my squad, hon!

Love ya,
